Vintage Conditions

Mild season, good early rain, quite dry from mid January to harvest. A terrific season for both Syrah and Gamay. Ripened in the cool of March.

Winemaking

Perfumed, fresh, medium weight red, delicious early drinking. A mixture of whole bunches and whole berries with some early foot stomping to create some juice to start the 'wild' ferment. Some additional working of the skins toward the end of fermentation. Pressed and racked to 500 litre casks for a 10 months fleshing out period.

Wine Analysis

Alc/Vol: 13.5 % pH: 3.70 TA: 6.1 g/L

Cellaring

Drink now or keep for three to four years in a good cellar.

Winemaker

Steve Webber
