

FRENCH WINE WHITE

GEORGES DUBOEUF MÂCON LUGNY BURGUNDY, FRANCE

Georges Duboeuf is the founder of Les Vins Georges Duboeuf, one of the largest and best-known wine merchants in France. The company is known for its popularisation and production of Beaujolais wines, leading to Duboeuf's nicknames of le roi du Beaujolais (the king of Beaujolais) or sometimes papé du Beaujolais (pope of Beaujolais). Duboeuf's business produces more than 25 million cases of wine annually. It is almost single-handedly responsible for popularising the annual Beaujolais nouveau phenomenon, and has won a number of awards for his wines. His wine labels are easily recognisable by their use of colourful flower images and the distinctive Duboeuf insignia.

- Characteristics A medium-bodied white with citrus fruit aromas. Crisp acidity and some length in the finish.
- Soil: Kimmeridgian and Portlandian Limestone
- Cépage: 100% Chardonnay
- Food Match: A real treat with any crustacean or fish dishes, such as sole, plaice or cod or with chicken, turkey, pastas, mild cheeses but especially with classic French cuisine including creamy or buttery sauces.